

KEY COVID-19 CONSIDERATIONS FOR YOUR BUSINESS

A multi-jurisdictional overview

04 August 2020

Although the COVID-19 lockdown is slowly being eased across the world, companies are still facing a number of challenges as they look to get back to business as usual. For those operating globally, it's vital to understand what support is available in different territories, and the timescales associated with the various coronavirus legislation that has been introduced.

This document provides the latest updates on four key areas - contracts, employment, insolvency & director duties and government economic support - across multiple jurisdictions.
