Seminar

Gowling WLG's popular Employment & Labour Law Seminar returns to our Ottawa office on Monday, April 30, providing you with the opportunity to learn about the latest legal developments affecting your workplace.

Our leading professionals will guide you through these key developments and offer practical insight and advice on what these changes mean for your organization.

Benefits of attending

This complimentary seminar provides an open and personal forum for the presentation and discussion of the latest case law, legislation and evolving employment issues. By attending, you'll have the chance to consider and discuss critical employment issues affecting your business with our panel of legal experts.

During our Q&A session, you will have the opportunity to discuss critical employment issues affecting your business with our panel of legal experts.

To ensure your topics are addressed, please send us your questions in advance to allison.gardner@gowlingwlg.com.

Topics

- #LetsTalk: Mental health accommodation in the workplace
- Budding challenges: Marijuana, the workplace and employer responsibilities
- #MeToo: Managing challenging and sensitive workplace sexual harassment claims
- Top 10 developments in employment, labour and human rights law
