MARK FERBERS

Mark Ferbers is a partner in Gowling WLG's Vancouver office. He has broad practice experience in real estate and general business law, including construction and development, financing and commercial leasing.

Over the years, a significant portion of Mark's practice has been focused on real estate and commercial litigation, including foreclosures and builder's liens, having appeared as counsel in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Court of Appeal, Federal Court of Canada and various tribunals.

While presently focusing on commercial and real estate solicitors practice, Mark's litigation experience has provided him a wide range of knowledge and experience well suited to dealing with complex real estate and business issues, including distress acquisitions and structuring.

Mark is a member of the Canadian Bar Association and is an active outdoor sporting participant in skiing, hiking and mountain biking.

Prior to joining Gowling WLG, Mark gained a considerable experience with the legal department of Great West Life Assurance Co. in Winnipeg. He was also a partner in a boutique Vancouver real estate firm, where he worked for 14 years before joining Gowling WLG.
